

IT REALLY IS THAT EASY TO GET

SEXY WOMEN

INTO BED

AND SHARE THEIR DIRTIEST FANTASIES

Welcome to my world! A world where sexy girls send me dirty photos of themselves and play around on webcams for me. Women want me.

I know what you're thinking – “Yeah, right! How can this jerk possibly do that?”

It's really easy and I'm gonna tell you. You see, I've had a lot of fun on the online dating websites. I've fooled around with girls and seen some pretty wild things. Women are all the same, they want to be loved.

Trouble is I don't love women. I fuck them and make them do really dirty things. Something which you're gonna be doing soon.

I don't matter if you're old, fat and ugly. You can get women to want you. Hell, I'm getting on in years but that doesn't stop me. You can do exactly the same things as me and get the girls you want.

Did I also mention that these girls will talk dirty on the phone and demand that I watch them play on their webcams?

This is a simple, sure fire method to find sexy women and get them into bed with you.

Let me tell you something.

Women are all basically the same. They love attention and they hate rejection. We all hate rejection, right? Women hate it far more than men. They don't want to feel like some guy doesn't like them.

Women love to be loved. Even the sexy, sassy girls who think they can have any man they want because they know how good they look will hate you if you reject them.

Yep, this simple method is all about rejection. You're gonna reject these girls and have them eating out of your hand or swallowing your dick, whichever you like!

Before I get onto the intimate details I need to tell you a story or two.

When I first tried online dating it was terrible. I had a decent profile and sent a ton of mails to girls and got nothing back. It was shit.

Then I tried a different approach. I'd read about all these guys online who pretend to be girls just to get other guys pissed. You've probably come across them. Too many fucking weirdos who get off on that sort of thing.

But then I figured I'd try something similar yet beautifully different.

When I first joined hornyadultencounters.com I got my profile all set up and before I knew what was happening these girls were sending me messages.

I hooked up with one chick, Katie, who really looked hot and boy, did she show me something! When we got mailing each other she sent me these really hot photos of herself. Smoking hot pics of her breasts and her pussy. Man, that shaved pussy looked good.

Then there was Sophie who played all sweet and innocent but wasn't. She was a dirty girl who insisted she wasn't a good girl and demanded I watch her prove it to me. She turned on her webcam and there she was using a dildo on herself.

I could go on, I got so many hot pics of webcam shows from sexy girls that I had too many online girlfriends. They all wanted me!

I even met some of them. Hot sex with these girls. A whole ton of casual sex! We'd go out for the night, party in the clubs and then we'd fuck. The girls were so desperate to please me that I'd be fucking them, getting great blowjobs and had some amazing banging anal sex.

Emily even brought a girlfriend along one night so we had a threesome. Have you had two girls suck your dick or let you watch them eat each other's pussies? It's fucking hot!

I couldn't believe my luck! Neither will you when you try out this one simple method that gets the girls and lets you do anything you want with them.

This is the one no-fucking-around method for attracting the women you want and it's so fucking simple!

First off, go join a hot adult dating site like hornyadultencounters.com. I've listed a few others at the end of this document so you can go try one that you like.

Set up a profile and make yourself out to be the hot stud. Don't go easy here. You're attracting attention to yourself. Say things like...

*I know I'm hot but I've got the confidence to believe in myself.
I'm well hung and have a great tongue action that'll drive you wild.
I party hard and fuck all night. I stay hard for two orgasms at least.
I know what I want and I always get it.*

Yeah, I know it makes you sound like a jerk but this is the way you want it. You don't want the nice girls and any chick who mails you telling you you're a jerk is gonna send you pictures of herself naked in a day or two. Sophie did that to me, sent me some crappy email about how I was an arrogant fuck. Remember what she did for me?

The idea is make sure you are a guy who gets a lot of girls and doesn't care. Like I said earlier, girls don't wanna be rejected. They'll get real jealous real quick if they think you're with someone else.

In the part of the profile where you say what you're looking for really go for it. Say shit like...

*You must have attitude and a damn fine ass.
You better know how to party and have more stamina than me.
You're an animal in the bedroom and love to play dirty.*

Come across with any shit you like. The girls will want to prove themselves to you.

Now for the best part.

Find a photo online of some hunky young guy. Have a search on Myspace or some other social network site and find some good photos of a guy. Use those on your new dating profile. Any guy who looks good, young and looks like he knows what the inside of a gym looks like will do.

Now you have two choices. Either wait for the girls to come to you, these will be the best ones, or have an initial search around a throw a few mails out to girls that attract you.

After a few days you'll be getting emails anyway so you won't even need to search.

When a chick messages you reply with a simple line like...

*Yeah, you look good but I don't think you'd be naughty enough.
You look sweet and probably act sweet too.
I'm only looking for bad girls who love to play dirty games.
I'm a bad boy, are you sure you want me?*

These chicks will not like that and start trying to prove their worth to you. Now you can say something like,

*Yeah, prove it. Do something really naughty.
You're gonna have to do something to prove you're a bad girl.*

Now the girls are gonna start telling you stuff or maybe sending some nice photos of themselves. Of course, you want more! Push them to be real bad. They don't know you got a ton of other girls waiting so tell her to really be bad or you'll be saying goodbye. Push these girls to prove themselves to you and be bad.

When they do then sit back and enjoy the ride!

So what happens when it comes to meeting these girls? Surely they realise there's been a big mistake when they see you looking nothing like that photo?

Yes, but!

When you meet these girls they're already horny. Remember, you've been pushing them online and now they're ready to fuck. You know what turns them on and you know that sex is a certainty.

There are a couple of tricks I've used which help in these situations.

First off, when you arrange to meet some chick in a bar or coffee shop they will be expecting someone and ready to meet them for sex. What you'll see is a cute girl being stood up! Just move on in there, be subtle and work her. Like I said, you already know what she's like and what she's here for. Just push those buttons and you'll be going home to fuck her.

Secondly, the more you fool around with women online the more you'll realise that they aren't totally hung up on looks. We used that male model photo to get their attention and the attitude to get her wanting you and feeling horny.

Once you begin to understand women more you will realise that getting laid is actually quite easy. The more you fool around with this method the less you'll actually need it.

Just remember, give them shit at first and push them online to do the dirtiest sexual things you can think of.

Play around, act the fool and generally have a good time. You will be having a great time the more you use this method for getting some good sex.

Believe me, it works!

So what are the best websites for getting a good fuck?

I've mentioned hornyadultencounters.com a couple of times. This is my favourite site for getting laid. Using hornyadultencounters.com gets me the women I want for meeting. It's a dating site designed for casual sex and meeting hot girls. Use this site if you want to get laid.

The best site for fooling around, getting photos and some great webcam shows is adultfriendfinder.com. You've probably heard of this one, maybe even tried it out before. Using the male model photo and the no-shit attitude will work for you. You'll be getting all sorts of dirty emails in no time at all.
